

AP Chemistry Assignment: Photoelectron Spectroscopy

Topic: Photoelectron spectroscopy, electron configurations, ionization energy, and periodic trends

Students will interpret peak positions and intensities to identify subshells, electron configuration, and the element represented in a photoelectron spectrum.

Questions include binding energy, kinetic energy, and first ionization energy calculations.